We Would Serve You

Do not think of the First State Bank as being merely a place to deposit your money. While the primary function of a bank is to safe-guard the public's funds we feel that our obligation to the community requires a great deal more of this bank.

It is our desire to render to our patrons, every service and accommodation that can reasonably be expected from us. We want our customers to come to us freely when our advice will be of value. It frequently happens that our business experience enables us to make helpful suggestions in business matters and we are anxious and willing to do what we can for your best business interests.

It is a pleasure for us to keep in close personal touch with those who depend on us. We believe it to be the best interests of the patrons as well as the bank, and we invite you to come to see us often.

A LAST WORK.

To the Democratic voters of the Second Congressional District:
As your Representative in Congress, the Hon. James O. Patterson, was, through a malarial illness contracted while aiding the distressed people of his District in the section almost ruined by the overflow of the Savannah river, rendered physically unable to address his constituents at the campaign meetings held in his District, I think it due both to you and to this faithful public servant to say that if he had been able to address the people at these campaign meetings they would have had convincing proof of his great ability as a worker in the ranks of the Democratic minority, of his thorough equipment for the intelligent and effective discharge of the duties you have committed to him.

In that greatest of all political schools, the Congress of the United States, there has been no more progressive student of public affairs than James O. Patterson. His association with the leading public men of the Congress has broadened his powers, strengthened his judgement and made him the equal in effectiveness of any and the superior in our State has never had a worthier Representative in Congress than he is, and as he will continue to be as long as honored by the ballots of his District fellow citizens. I say so because I know it to be so, and I know it to be so because the records of Congress prove it. As a reader and student of the Congressional record, the official journal of Congressional proceedings, I bear my testimony to his worth and work. AN OLD VOTER.

WHY SHOULD MR. PATTERSON BE RETURNED TO CONGRESS?

Mr. Editor: I am thoroughly convinced that the Hon. J. O. Patterson should be returned to Congress by the voters of this District:

1st. Because he is a conscientious christian gentleman.

2nd. Because he has demonstrated his fitness and competency to represent his people.

3rd. Because having done much already, his experience as a representative and acquaintance with Congressional legislation will give him the knowledge and facility that will enable him to be of more benefit to his country than ever before.

4th. His heart and hand are in his work and he clearly evinces the progressive spirit of the times.

There is nothing to be urged against his opponents-nothing for or against them-only that neither gentleman is suffering for lack of honors or emolument. One is a bank president, the other was elected Solicitor for a term of four years at a handsome salary, and he has served two years-half the task the people gave him to perform. CITIZEN.

CARD FROM CONGRESSMAN PATTERSON.

Barnwell, S. C., August 21, 1910.
To the voters of the 2nd Congressional District:

I have endeavored to get before you a record of my work and efforts as your Representative in Congress. It is a political as well as a personal regret to me that I have been providentially hindered from meeting you face to face and addressing the campaign meetings throughout the District; nevertheless, it was no fault of mine. I have no charges to prefer against my opponents nor have I anything to conceal from my friends.

I thank you most heartily and sincerely for the confidence and trust which you have heretofore responded in me and ask that you give me and my work fair and impartial consideration and reward me according to my deserts.

With the feeling of the most profound regard and love for the people who have honored me so highly, and for whom I have spent the best years of my life, the greatest desire of my heart is to further work for and serve you, and I assure you that if I am reelected, as I hope to be, my time and efforts will be devoted to the promotion of the interests of my District.

Faithfully your servant,
J. O. PATTERSON.
